REMARKS

25X1X

1. Prior to August 1951, Volkspolizei Dienststelle (VPD) 2735, which had the same organization as the other VPDs, was located in the barracks installation on Knochenhauerstrasse in Meiningen, which quartered 1,200 to 1,300 men and in the Gendarmerie Kaserne, with about 700 men, and the former Fliebertechnische Vorschule in Suhl. The arrival of only a few recruits was observed. Among officers, it was rumored that the entire unit was scheduled to be transferred to Eisenach or Weimar. About 60 young officers of the unit attended an instruction course for tactics in the Gendarmerie Kaserne in Suhl at the time of observation. A driver was to be conducted upon completion of that course.
2. During the tactical instruction, it was learned that the rifleman Gruppe was to be enlarged from 1 NCO and 9 police to 1 NCO and 19 police and the present 4th (heavy machine gun) Abteilung would be dissolved. The new rifleman Gruppe was to comprise 1 light machine gun, 1 heavy machine gun, 3 sub-machine gunners and the rest riflemen. According to the new organization, an infantry Kommando was to consist of 4 rifle Abteilungen and 1 mortar Abteilung.
3. Heavy weapons of the unit included 1x 88-mm AA gun, 1 Soviet 122-mm field howitzer, 1 Soviet 76.2-mm AT gun, 1 x 75-mm SP gun, 1 T-34 tank and 1 four-wheel armored reconnaissance car mounting a heavy machine gun. No firing with the heavy weapons had been practiced to date.
4. Officers of the VPD included:
